

Sunday Success

What are we celebrating this week?

Welcome to the team!

This week we welcomed Shevaughn Stanberry to the Partners team!

Shevaughn has joined us as a Partners Research Recruiter, previously having worked at the Government Kickstart Scheme which set him on the path of recruitment. He's a go getter, and we're confident he will work well with our potential partners, helping to build our community and increasing our brand.

Great to have you on board Shevaughn!

Congratulations to Diego!

Diego is celebrating two years working with our Tesco Bank client. Diego has been working collaboratively with the cloud engineering team helping to build out their AWS cloud platform SIRRA.

He has helped with the build and maintenance of data pipelines and infrastructure stacks and embraced the agile ways of working to ensure the cloud engineering team is a high performing team.

Thanks for being such an integral part of the team Diego!
