Data Breach

Our payroll data was accidentally sent to an ex-employee of Hydrogen last week. This senior member of staff replied straight away and confirmed the information had been deleted.

The information did contain names and NI numbers for our permanent partners.

I can assure you that additional measures and checks have now been implemented to ensure this never occurs again. If you have any concerns or questions, please contact Corrinne who will be happy to help.

Happy Pancake Day!

I can't believe it's Pancake Day! It's really crêped up on us!

We hope your day is full of flipping delicious pancakes. If it is, please send Zoe a picture of them so we can share them on social media to show we're not just project professionals!

You can email her or just drop her a Teams message.

And remember, what's the best pancake topping? More pancakes.

Friday's Team Meet

For this month's Team Meet, we're talking about all things Technology.

First up, we have Luke Camfield presenting "The Future of Remote Working". Think futuristic, as we are talking Metaverse.

And that will be followed with Andrew Duffy on all things Cloud.

Make sure you tune in!
