Holiday reminders

Who can believe that we're already coming to the end of 2021! With December starting tomorrow, we thought we'd give you all a quick reminder of the holiday plans coming up.

For those of you working on client projects, you should have all heard by now what will happen over the festive period. Most of our clients have asked for Project Partners' services to pause. All partners will have received individual communications on their clients specific needs.

Project Partners will be closed the whole week of the 27th December (including the days between Christmas and New Years).

We will be returning to work on the 4th January - please do not come to work on the 3rd as it is a Bank Holiday! Please note that this start date includes those in Scotland.

If you require any clarifications or have any questions, please get in contact.
